Publications

Books:

1. Vital Signs (Gwynedd: Cinnamon Press, 2024)

A collection of poetry published in April 2024.

2. And Then the Rain Came (Gwynedd: Cinnamon Press, 2022)

A collection of poetry published in April 2022.

3. Exploring Rights (Gwynedd: Cinnamon Press, 2020)

A collection of poetry published in March 2020.

4. Holding Unfailing (Gwynedd: Cinnamon Press, 2017)

A collection of poetry published in February 2017.

Intriguing, supple poems that range across the world and across the landscapes of the mind. – Sarah Howe

5. A Force That Takes (Gwynedd: Cinnamon Press, 2013)

Winner of the 2012 Cinnamon Press Poetry Award.

Debut collection of poetry published by one of the UK's leading independent literary publishers.

It is meticulous, crafted poetry – S. J. Holloway (review in Orbis 167).

6. Wallace Stevens and the Aesthetics of Abstraction (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2010) – Hardback, E-Book, Kindle edition

The first book to tackle comprehensively this controversial, baffling, but central aspect of Stevens' work. A revisionist study that provides new readings of the Stevens corpus, illustrating how the poet created his own uniquely abstract verse.

Award: In Jan 2012 Wallace Stevens and the Aesthetics of Abstraction was awarded a Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title of 2011 – see Choice Reviews Online (<http://www.cro2.org/>)

Reviews by J. Hillis Miller, Charles Altieri, Beverly Maeder, James Gifford et al., visit: <http://www.cambridge.org/us/academic/subjects/literature/american-literature/wallace-stevens-and-aesthetics-abstraction>

7. Wallace Stevens across the Atlantic ed. Bart Eeckhout and Edward Ragg with a Preface by Frank Kermode (London: Palgrave, 2008)

Dr EDWARD RAGG 杜慕康

A volume of essays exploring the Transatlantic nature of Stevens' work with contributions from prominent North American and European scholars including J. Hillis Miller, Charles Altieri and Massimo Bacigalupo with a preface by Sir Frank Kermode.
